No. 1713

Madras, 5th July 1898.

From

Commander H. A. Street, R.N., Presidency Port Officer,

Madras,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

MARINE DEPARTMENT,

ШЕРАК.

Sir,

Sir,
With reference to G.O. No 482, Financial, dated 26th May 1898, I have the honor to point out, for the information of Government, that the name of Commander W. Aves, R. I. M., Deputy Conservator of the Port of Madras, has not been included in the list A of the Appendix to the Order of Government which contains the names of Officers of the Port Department who are considered eligible for Exchange Compensation Allowance.

2. In my letter to Government
No. 1713/347, G, dated 22^d September 1897 it was stated, that the Office of the Deputy Conservator of the Port of Madras is an appointment for which European qualifications are considered indispensable indispensable and that therefore the officer holding that appointment is considered eligible for Exchange Compensation allowance. I request therefore that the name of Commander Aves may be included in the list A referred to.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your obedt. servant,
N. K. Wheeler
Commander, R. I. M., Free Port Officer.

Forwarded to Government.

The list A of the appendix to Government Order No 482 H.L. dated 26 May 1898 includes only the names of those officers who were appointed in India and whose claims to Exchange Compensation allowance are doubtful under the new rules. As Commander W. Aves was appointed in England by the Secretary of State his claim to Exchange Compensation allowance is admissible under para 3 of the Govt. of India Resolution No 2422 H.L. dated 31st May 1897. It does not therefore seem necessary to include his name in the list referred to.
