~~HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.~~
THE HON'BLE SIR HENRY BLISS, K.C.I.E.
~~THE HON'BLE MR. GROSE, C.I.E.~~

Acting allowance to the Port officer Tellicherry

FOR ORDERS.

This case is precisely similar to those of Messrs Teeley and Boas, disposed of in the undermentioned orders:-

x Flag D
+ Flag E

- G.O. 659 marine, d/28th September 1896
- + G.O. 502 marine, d/ 1st June 1897.

The distinction which the Accountant General endeavours to draw is not apparent. The wording of the orders in these three cases is as follows:-

Mrs. Teeley

"Performs the duties of Port officer and Customs Collector, Bimilipatam, in addition to his own duties at Vizagapatam"

Mrs. Boas.

"Takes charge of both the marine and Customs duties at Bimilipatam"

Bimilipatam in addition to his own duties at Vizagapatam."

Mrs. Simpson

"Put in charge of the port of Calicut in addition to his own duties."

The Accountant General, however, now admits that Mrs. Simpson can, if Government is pleased to sanction it, draw acting allowance at the rate of 1/5 pay, or Rs 70, as recommended by the Presidency Port Officer, & this seems the proper course

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 319, Marine, dated 29th April 1898, sanctioning privilege leave for 3 months to Mr. N. A. W.
Hamilton and placing Mr. J. M.
Simpson, Port Officer, Tellicherry, in charge of the Calicut port during the absence on leave of the former,
I have the honor to recommend, that for the period Mr. Simpson may be in charge of the Calicut port in addition to his own duties, he may be granted an allowance of Rupees (70) Seventy per mensem (one fifth of the pay of the Port Officer, Calicut), the proviso under Article 184 of the Civil Service Regulations being dispensed with, as Mr. Simpson's salary limited by the proviso is considered insufficient.

The

Forwarded to Government.
As in Government order No 319 Mar: of 29 April 1898
Mr J. M. Simpson was placed in charge of the Port of Calicut in addition to his own duties as Port Officer, Tellicherry, his case is governed by articles 176 and 177 Civil Service Regulation, under which he is not entitled to any charge allowance (the pay of both the appointments being Rs 350 a month) unless the Government consider that the charge entails such increase of responsibility and additional work as to justify them in making the declaration prescribed in rule 1 under article 184 Civil Service Regulations, in which case, he will be entitled to a charge allowance to be fixed by Government not exceeding Rs 35: being one-tenth of the pay of the appointment.

No. 3636

From J. Hesketh Riggs Esqr., ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS, To
THE Secretary to Government;
Marine Department.

SIR,

With reference to your Endorsement-No: 338E dated the 4th of July 1898 enquiring why the precedents contained in the orders therein quoted should not be followed and Mr Simpson should not be granted an allowance of Rs 70 or $\frac{1}{5}$ of the pay of the Post Officer, Calcutta, as recommended by the Presidency Post Officer, I have the honour to state that the officers referred to in the Government Orders quoted were appointed to perform the entire duties of the Post Officers in addition to their own and their cases were therefore brought under Article 184 of the Civil Service Regulations vide this Officer's reports recorded in the orders referred to. In the case under reference however Mr

Mr. J. M. Simpson was put in charge of the Post of Calicut in addition to his own duties - Vide Government Order No. 319 M. dated 29 April 1898 and his case was therefore brought under Articles 176 and 177 Civil Service Regulations.

If however Government appoint him to act as Post Office Calicut in addition to his own duties and dispense with the proviso and make the declaration prescribed in rule 1 Article 182 Civil Service Regulations, there will be no objection to the allowance of Rs 70 per mensem being granted to him for the additional duties.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.
