Misc Order No. 72 Min 8 11.1.98

The Chairman will be informed that the elective system of appointing councillors should be introduced only as vacancies occur on the council.

2. There is no rule that only Registered Councillors who have been appointed by election, should be ward councillors for administrative purposes. Any councillor residing in a particular ward may be the councillor for such ward.

3. Under Section 250 of the Act, rules for the conduct of elections in municipalities should be made by Government. A set of revised rules is now under preparation

Sir,

Referring to G.O. No. 2260 M. dated 15th October 1897, I have the honor to solicit the favor of being enlightened on the following points:—

- Whether immediately after the expiry of three months from the date of the publication of the notification, four seats should be declared to have become vacant and the same filled up by election or the elective system should be observed only as vacancies occur after that date?—
- If the former, out of the nine non-official councillors now nominated, upon whom shall fall the choice of vacancy and is it necessary that such councillors alone as are elected shall be ward councillors for administrative purposes?—
- By whom have the rules for the conduct of election in the respective towns shall be framed? If by the Council, as I think, are they not subject to confirmation by Government and to be on the lines indicated in

(4) — Should the voters' list be similarly published? —

III — If it is intended that the elective system should be brought into force as per my first query I solicit the favor of issue of early orders — as the three months' time allowed provided in the notification, under reference, expires on the 15th January 1898. —
