There is no Advocate General's opinion on this subject.

SUBJECT.
copy of
Supply of the Government Pleader's opinion on the ownership of private jetties at Tuticorin to the Municipal Council, Cocanada.

FOR ORDERS.

The Advocate General has expressed no opinion on this question, not having been asked to do so.---

There is however a legal opinion^x by the Government Pleader with the -- file of G.O.No. 100 Marine dated 7th February 1898. Legal opinions by the Government Law Officers are generally considered to be confidential documents.

2. Orders are solicited whether the Municipal Council, Cocanada --- should be furnished with a copy of this particular document.

3. The opinion has not been indorsed by Government in any way.

Yes - I think it will be sufficient to send them a copy of the above R.O.

*Yes -
Bright has well back the R.O. if there other ports than Tuticorin (and Cochin) where private jetties exist. If so, I think similar steps to those taken at Tuticorin are advisable to prevent vested rights from coming up against Govt. and to enable Govt. to retain full control. W.H.
