Nothing however is said in the above draft as to the Agency by which the belts should be supplied, as under Article 6 of the Stationery Rules, the Supt is not bound to supply the Presy. Post Office, when such supply will interfere with the requirements of ^{the} Officers named in Appendix B of the Rules.

608, Financial, dated 3^d August 1897,
I forwarded an Indent on the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, for the requirements of menials' clothing including peons' belts for the use of the Port Department.
That officer states that the supply of peons belts by the Stationery Office is not authorized by the Appendix to G.O. N: 1036, dated 4th August 1897, but that if Government sanctions he would make
