Drawing the attention of all departments and heads of departments to the necessity for the practice of the strictest economy in view to limiting the expenditure to the budget grants, and directing that heads of departments should not include in the budget estimates for 1899-1900 any proposal for increase of expenditure not covered by an increase of revenue and that sanctioned schemes not yet introduced should be added as appendix to the budget estimates.

No. 792, FINANCIAL, 14TH SEPTEMBER 1898.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—No. 792, Financial, dated 14th September 1898.

The low state of the Provincial balances, the expenditure which will be necessary in connection with plague operations, and the possibility of an extension of famine relief operations render it incumbent that all expenditure which is not absolutely necessary should be curtailed. The Governor in Council draws the attention of all departments and heads of departments to this matter in view to the strictest economy being practiced. Excesses over budget grants in the current year will not be permitted unless such excess can be clearly shown to be due to famine or plague or to both these causes. All controlling authorities will scrutinize expenditure closely in order to ensure that these instructions are carefully observed and that all available surrenders are reported as early as possible.

2. In submitting budget estimates for 1899-1900, heads of departments will not include any proposals in regard to increases of expenditure which are not covered by corresponding increases of revenue. Any schemes sanctioned but not yet introduced should be excluded from the estimates proper, but should be added as an appendix to the same in the recognized budget forms.
