To The (Chief) Secretary To Government.
 Port St George.
 Madras.

I have the honor to request that you will be so good and inform me whether any notice has been taken of my letter of 8th Feby 1897, or am I still to smart under a lash of unjust ^{punishment} which was brought on by deliberate false statements in Demi-official correspondence between Mr. Barlow and the members in Council in 1889; which was a thorough stab in the back. Had the statements borne daylight, the charges against me would have been brought to light long ago, and I would have had an opportunity to defend myself; this privilege is allowed to a Thief and Murderer in Court of Law; then it is evident that it is disallowed in the Council Chamber of Fort St George, and yet the Councillors have sworn before God and man to administer justice to the best of their ability, instead of which they are mocking it. A poor man is prosecuted and punished for perjury, for making false statements while our oath still Councillors are allowed and without the least suspicion of any other possessing any other orders. But I have only one and that the document is in the hands of officials concerned. I have been ready to check the last drop of blood for justice sake and for this justice was wanted in 1889 by the Administration of the same in fact of George.

I had been very fully apprised of my own good wife by an untimely death which happened three days ago.

Let me appeal to the present members of Council in the House of God and the House of Propriety the Queen of England and King of India to grant me my justice by bestowing the reward due by their predecessors. Allow me to say my father

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the copy of the letter to your address dated 8th Feby/97 which I forwarded to India Office for information. This copy with cover is returned to me this day in the usual way without a word of censure, for having taken up the time of the high officials at the India Office, which only goes to show even the Right Hon. Lord George Hamilton the Secretary of State for India can see how cruelly the Councillors (old Civil Servants) in Fort St George have treated me, and still continue to do so, simply to satisfy their old friends revengeful spirits in crushing me to the very dust; by upholding unjust orders passed by their predecessors: what is their oath worth? which was taken under a salute of 15 guns. My wife died from grief caused by their handy work, and no doubt by their obstinacy ^{will} yet make me follow her. I was staked in the dark by the hands of old Civil Servants, with the knife of Demi-official Correspondence: the present Councillors know

Dear Sir

Prayer me for approaching you with these few lines, forasmuch as they are pressed in full hope that you will pity my sad case, and take it into your kind, and favourable consideration to see me righted before you leave India; and for which act of kindness Pollock me you will always be remembered by us myself and children and shall have our united best wishes for your welfare so long as we live. I have had some life ignorant and approached you are this, and stated the facts, I would have had justice from your hands Bangalore.
Sir Henry Fowler, Lord George Hamilton & and Lord Wenlock all state my concerns entirely with the Madras Government.
Therefore may I beg of you in the name of God, I wish a justice who rules this universe, to go over my papers and move with earnestness which becomes a true Englishman. I am confident - that justice has only to raise her head, for injustice to flee, and all will become so clear

sition for the same was made

The file of Mr. Stalberg's case has now been returned from the Private Secretary's office. See attached note from the office manager, of 3rd Oct 98.

In the linked file there are three further communications from Mr. Stalberg - C.H.S. ⁵³¹466 & 540. One of which is addressed to the Hon. Sir H. Bliss, on which he asks a question. He has evidently forgotten that the papers were sent to him on a former occasion when he wrote as follows - "No need to send this to me - 26/11/96." vide 0828 Marine of 30-11-96.

The Currents may perhaps be recorded in continuation of the previous appeals?
