books and Supplements.

Anti for M

It is proposed to have one copy for office use.
It is observed that the signals prescribed in Regulation 3 on page 47 of the Plague Regulations, are not in accordance with the International Code. Under page turned down. "Flags used for special purposes". The flag prescribed is L, whereas the Admiral for, under the advice of the P.P.O., have adopted flags. L & R.

This is likely, it is thought, to cause confusion.
The P.P.O. should perhaps be asked to explain?

C.N. 1088

No. 515988. October 1898

To the Presidency Post Office (unofficially)

Under V. 745 dated 23.8.97

In accordance with your recommendation, it is prescribed in Regulation 3 of the Regulations under the Epidemic Diseases Act for the inspection of inward bound vessels that flag L & R shall be exhibited.
The International Code of Signals, copies of which are being sent to you separately, prescribes however that flag "L" a large flag of yellow and black hoist quarterly shall be displayed in the circumstances contemplated by the Regulation in question.
I have said whether it will now be necessary to amend the Regulation, and

And if so send a draft of the proposed amendment.
