FOR ORDERS

x f.o. 187 Mar, a/28 February 1899.
May 2

In his letter read above, the Presidency Port Officer seems to make out a good case for the retention of the 2 additional clerks at Cochin for the whole twelve months instead of for ten months in each year under the existing sanction.
2. It is proposed to continue to sanction these men under the head of temporary establishment.
The question, however, arises whether, seeing that they are in future to be continuously employed, it is quite correct to continue them on this temporary establishment. The circumstances of the current year are exceptional, owing to the failure of the monsoon.
I think, therefore, that the proposal may be sanctioned in this year.
