Directing the publication in the Fort St. George and Malabar District Gazettes of a notification adding the — to the list of ports to which section 7 of Act VII of 1880 (The Indian Merchant Shipping Act) has been extended.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From Commander H. A. STREET, R.I.M., Presidency Port Officer, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Marine Department, dated 25th January 1899, No. 498/34 G.

With reference to the consolidated rules under Act VII of 1880, published with G.O., No. 74, Marine, dated 26th January 1898, I have the honour to request that it may be pointed out to Government that, when the rules were originally issued, there was no Port officer with professional knowledge at Tellicherry, and consequently the rules were not extended to that port. As now there is a professional officer in charge of the port at Tellicherry, I would suggest that the notification printed with the Government Order above quoted may be declared applicable to Tellicherry also.

His Excellency the Governor in Council approves the Presidency Port Officer's proposal and directs the publication in the Fort St. George and Malabar District Gazettes of the following:—

NOTIFICATION.

His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to add the port of Tellicherry to the list of ports, published in notification No. 4, pages 103 and 104 of Part I of the Fort St. George Gazette of the 8th February 1898, to which section 7 of Act VII of 1880 has been extended.

The Presidency Port Officer, in his letter read above, requests that the notification under the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, VII of 1880, printed in G.O. 74 Marine dated 26th January 1898, may be extended to the port of Tellicherry. He explains that, when the rules were originally issued, there was no Port Officer with the requisite professional knowledge at that port, but that there is one now who is competent to carry out the requisite provisions of the Act regarding the detention of vessels.

2. The Presidency Port Officer's proposal might be approved and the following notification issued:—
