From A. H. L. FRASER, Esq., c.s.i., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India (Home Department—Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 17th October 1898, No. 2057.

With reference to the correspondence ending with Home Department endorsement No. 2279, dated the 23rd October 1897, regarding the question of restricting the right of appeal against departmental punishments which public servants holding subordinate appointments now enjoy, I am directed to say that it has been decided not to make any alteration in the rules regulating the submission of petitions to the Government of India. The Governor-General in Council has, however, no objection to Local Governments and Administrations making a rule, if they desire to do so, as proposed by the Government of Madras, prohibiting second appeals by Government servants on a salary not exceeding Rs. 50 a month when the appeal is to the Local Government, and Rs. 25 a month when the appeal is to any other authority. I am to ask that, if such a rule is made by the Government of Madras, the fact may be reported for the information of the Government of India.

ORDER—No. 199, Public, dated 17th February 1899.

His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to add the following clause to Rule V of the rules regarding petitions addressed to the Government of Fort St. George :—

(11) When a petition is an appeal against any order prejudicially affecting a Government servant who is in receipt of a salary not exceeding Rs. 50 a month, if an appeal against such order has already been decided by an officer superior to the officer passing the order.

2. The letter from the Government of India will be communicated to all departments of the Secretariat with a view to the issue of orders in each department specifying the officers, or classes of officers, in each branch of the public service, drawing a salary of not more than Rs. 25 per mensem in whose case a second appeal is to be altogether prohibited.
