THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

MARINE DEPARTMENT,

Sir,

With reference to G. O., Marine No. 267 dated 20th March 1899, I have the honour to enquire whether the Collectors are to be chairmen of the Landing and Shipping Dues Committees at the several ports specified, or the Port Officers.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Yours Obedient Servant,

H. A. Thurt

Commander, R. I. M., Presidency Port Officer.

Letter from the Presidency Port Officer on a draft, No. 1896/134

dated 11th April 1899

Landing and Shipping Dues Committee - Constitution of Circulated to

His Excellency the Governor

FOR ORDERS

Referring to G.O. 267 Maurine dated 20th March 1899, the Presidency Port Officer inquires whether the Collector or the Port Officer is to be Chairman of the Landing and Shipping Dues Committee at the ports where such Committees have been constituted.

G.O. 467 dated 7th June 1898 Flag L
G.O. 772 dated 9th Sept 1898 Flag M

The Presidency Port Officer may be informed that there is no need to make any change in existing arrangements.

2. The principle of making the Collector, Chairman, was approved in the orders quoted in the margin and was adopted in consequence of the failure of the Port Officer at Karaikalpetam to exercise efficient supervision over the Landing and Shipping Dues Accounts. The proposal was to transfer to the Collector the direct control of the Accounts and establishments also, but this proposal

proposal was subsequently withdrawn vide G.O. 264 on 20th March 1899

3. At present there is some diversity of practice in regard to the Constitution of these Committees;

At Cocanada the Collector is to be the Chairman, and the Vice-Chairman is to be elected by the members; the non-official members being appointed annually.

At Mangalore, the Collector of the District is the President and there is no Vice-President, the Post Officer being only an ex-officio member of the Committee, the members of which have been appointed permanently.

At Masulipatam and Vizaga-patam the Collectors are the Chairmen and the Post Officers, Vice-Chairmen of the Committees; the non-official members ^{being} appointed
annually.

At Nagapatam, the Post Officer is the President of a permanently appointed Committee.

Whether strict uniformity is essential is a matter upon which the Presidency Post Officer might

of affairs connected with landing and shipping dues has been

might be asked to advise.
There may be local circumstances which would render uniformity undesirable.

At Gopalpur and Tuticorin
where the Act is in force, no Committees have been appointed.
There is nothing in the Act itself requiring such Committees.

R.S.

27/4/99

At Cocacoda there is a Conservancy B^d - with a Landing & Shipping Dues Committee - the note reads as if there were two latter & not the former -

and 26/4/99

It has dual functions - vide para 6 of
No 255 Marine. of 4 April 1898. In the present draft it is only considered in its capacity of Landing
and Shipping Dues
Committee. No mention was therefore made of it as "Conservator".

R.F.

26 April 99
The Landing & Shipping Dues Committee have no legal status, i.e. they are not appointed under any law, but merely by Proclamation order of Govt., and para 6 of the order quoted above is quite sufficient to make the

Conservancy Board
a Landing & Shipping
Dues Committee
and they can now exercise as much control over the Landing & Shipping Dues of Coconut as other Committees exercise
elsewhere.
