of the Godavari District Ports Coconada Conservancy Board. The duties of the Chairman could be performed during his absence by the Senior Government Official on the Board present at a Meeting, and he could sign papers for Chairman. This arrangement, I submit, would do away with the necessity of having a Vice Chairman and possibly prevent friction between Official and Non-official members.

I have the honour to be,

FOR ORDERS

The P. P. Officer should be told that the Govt. cannot reconsider its decision.

In the letter read above the Presidency Port Officer requests a reconsideration of the decision which has been come to by Government in respect of the appointment of a Vice-Chairman of the Coconada Conservancy Board. The matter has been fully considered by Government, as will be seen from the notes attached to G.O. 321 Marine dated 11th April 1899.
