Proposition Statements.

Drawing the attention of all heads of departments to the rule requiring that every proposition statement involving expenditure for which there is no budget provision should be accompanied by a re-appropriation statement; and requesting the Accountant-General to return to heads of departments for revision all — which do not conform to this rule.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers:—

G.O., No. 604, Financial, dated 21st September 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Approving the suggestion of the Accountant-General that he may be allowed to forward to Government in future proposition statements in duplicate so as to admit of one of the copies being returned to him with the sanction of Government written across it; and circulating to Secretariat departments and heads of departments a summary of instructions relating to the preparation and submission of proposition statements.

G.O., No. 785, Financial, dated 24th September 1897.

ABSTRACT.—Recording, with remarks, letter from the Accountant-General stating that the submission of proposition statements in the case of establishments entertained solely for famine work may be dispensed with.

G.O., No. 951, Financial, dated 26th October 1898.

ABSTRACT.—Prescribing a revised form for the preparation of the re-appropriation statement that should accompany all applications for sanction to expenditure which cannot be met from the sanctioned budget grant.

ORDER—No. 549, Financial, dated 24th April 1899.

The attention of all heads of departments will be drawn to rule 3 of the rules in the Appendix to G.O., No. 604, Financial, dated 21st September 1896, which requires that every proposition statement involving expenditure for which there is no budget provision should be accompanied by a re-appropriation statement indicating the source from which the expenditure can be met during the remainder of the current year, should the proposals in the proposition statement meet with the approval of Government. The Accountant-General will be requested to return to heads of departments for revision all proposition statements which do not conform to this rule.

2. The revised form of re-appropriation statement prescribed in G.O., No. 951, Financial, dated 26th October 1898, will be substituted for Form B appended to the first of the orders read again above.
