READ—the following paper :—

From R. NATHAN, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Judicial), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 28th April 1899, No. 640.

I am directed to state that the Government of India have had under consideration the question of the number of spare copies of draft Bills circulated for opinion by the Administrative Departments of the Government of India which should be supplied to Local Governments and Administrations. It has been decided that, in order to save the expense and delay of reprinting draft Bills in such cases for circulation to selected officials and non-official bodies whom it may be considered desirable to consult, 100 copies will ordinarily, in future, be forwarded to the Government of Madras.
