The Government of India having intimated that they would have no objection to Local Governments making a rule prohibiting second appeals by Government servants on a salary not exceeding Rs 50 a month when the appeal is to the Local Government and Rs 25 a month when the appeal is to any other authority, the rules governing petitions addressed to His Government were amended accordingly as regards Government servants on a salary not exceeding Rs 50 a month. As regards those on Rs 25 and below, each department was asked to issue orders specifying the officers or classes of officers in each branch of the public service who would be

he affected.

2. In the Marine Department, Second appeals from the latter class of officers would generally be addressed to Government, the first appeal being addressed to the Presidency Port Officer as head of the department. This however would only apply when the punitive order emanated from a Port Officer who is directly subordinate to the Presidency Port Officer; but when, as at the ports of Calingapatam, Cannanore and Cuddalore, the Port Conservator, a direct subordinate of the Port Officer, is the punitive authority, the second appeal would lie to the Presidency Port Officer. There seems no reason why such appeals to the head of the department should not be permitted. If this view be accepted, no further action in the Marine Department will be required; the Presidency Port Officer having, already, under the revised rule, power to withhold second appeals to Government from all persons on Rs 50 and Clerks, Flag Signallers, Flag lascars, Boat overseers, Boat Linds and Lightkeepers of the 3rd 4th and 5th classes.
