Simla, the June 1899.

SIR,

SIR, I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 793, dated the 19th April 1899, and in reply to say that the Government of India do not desire that cases in which the families of police officers who die of plague in the execution of plague duty are recommended for pensions should be submitted for their sanction. The cases of the 9 constables mentioned in your letter should accordingly be disposed of under the orders of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor.

2. I am at the same time to invite attention to the letter from this Department noted in the margin, and to say that the instructions it contains regarding the exercise of great discretion and care in the grant of family plague pensions should be carefully followed in cases disposed of by the Local Government in accordance with the present orders.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

A. H. L. FRASER,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.
