FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—No. 111, Financial, dated 17th January 1899.

The Board of Revenue and all heads of departments who submit budget estimates to any department of Government will in future submit annually to the Financial Department, by the 1st February in each year (after the receipt of copies of the "Preliminary" printed estimates), notes regarding the revised estimates of receipts and charges for the current year. These notes should be confined to a comparison of the figures of the revised estimate as contained in the Preliminary printed estimates with the budget estimates for the year. Each head should be kept on a different sheet of paper and the remarks should be written on one side of the paper only, with headings showing major and minor heads and with complete references to proceedings of Government bearing on the points noticed.
