The Secretary, India Office says that the papers were not received; and in the draft reply the statement is accepted as correct. It is only by referring to the list of packets in the Madras office that the statement can be verified. If it is true, the Despatcher has been very careless, for his attention was on the original draft, drawn to the enclosure by forwarding lines in the margin. He should explain. If the enclosure did actually go, the latter part of the draft reply will need modification.

Dear Sir,

The enclosures to the Letter from the Government of Madras, No. 12, Marine, dated 23rd May 1899, respecting the shoaling at the entrance of Madras Harbour, have not been received at this Office.

I shall be obliged if you will furnish me with a copy of the same at your early convenience.

Yours faithfully,

Edmund Peel

Secretary,

The Despatcher's explanation is submitted.

The Despatcher has undoubtedly got very heavy work to do, but I cannot help thinking that common sense should make him take ~~the~~ extra care when despatching papers to the India Office.

I regret very much
the omission owing to pressure of work in the Despatch section more especially when the Government is away to Botacamund
when I have to work single handed. The services of my assistant are entirely taken up for the Botacamund
despatch work.

I beg leave to say that I will be more careful in future.
