Sir,

With reference to your letter No.48/393 M, dated 30-3-98, and subsequent reminder thereon No.48/600 dated 13th May 1898, I have the honor to forward herewith copy of resolution passed by the Conservancy Board relative to the entertainment of a Clerk on Rupees 20 to be paid from Landing and Shipping Dues funds and the continuance of allowance of Rupees 5 to Head Clerk of the Port Office.

2. The Chairman is of the opinion that the allowance of Head Clerk should be continued as he will still have to supervise the work of the new special Clerk and assist him when necessary so that he will still retain some responsibility and also have some extra work to do in connection with the Landing and Shiiping Dues.

3. I therefore request you will please obtain sanction of Government for the entertainment of a Clerk on Rupees 20 and the continuance of allowance of Rupees 5 to Head Clerk of the Port Office.

Sir,

In the Minutes of Proceedings of a meeting of the Godavari District Ports Conservancy Board held at Cocanada on 23rd December 1897, the Board decided to increase to Rupees 10 per mensem the allowance of Rupees 5 granted by the Board in March 1885 to A.V. Ramanayya, Head Clerk of the Cocanada Port Office, for keeping the correspondence and accounts connected with the Landing & Shipping Dues. On enquiry it has been ascertained that this allowance has been met under contingent charges from Landing and Shipping Dues, and the Board requested this office to obtain the sanction of Government to the increase proposed on the ground that the correspondence connected with Landing and Shipping Dues affairs had increased and given additional work to the Head Clerk.

As I had noticed during my inspection of the Port Office that the clerical work was extremely heavy, especially that portion of it relating to Landing and Shipping Dues correspondence, I addressed the Vice Chairman of the Conservancy Board on the point and suggested that an additional clerk should be entertained to deal with the Landing and Shipping Dues correspondence. On the occasion of his inspection of the Port of Cocanada early last year, Commander Sheet was impressed with the necessity of increasing the Port-office Establishment, owing to the increase of Landing & Shipping dues work. To meet the difficulty it is proposed by the Conservancy Board, to entertain one additional Clerk on Rs 20 and to give another Clerk a personal allowance allowance of Rs 5, the cost being charged to Landing and Shipping Dues. There is already one personal allowance of Rs 10.

2. It is considered that at the same cost, the office could be rendered more efficient by the entertainment of 2 additional clerks, one on Rs 20 and the other on Rs 15; all personal allowances which are inadmissible in such cases, being abolished.

3. The opinion of the Conservancy Board on this alternative proposal should be elicited.

The Conservancy Board prefers a Clerk on Rs 20/- to be in charge of the Boards work and to continue the allowance of Rs 5/- to the Head Clerk of the Cocanada Port Office for supervising the work of the Boards clerk.

The allowance of Rs 10/- paid to the 2nd Clerk of the Port Office* is not in connection with the Conservancy Boards work, but for assisting the Port Officer in Survey work — See G.O. Marine No 662 dated 24th July 1897.

FOR ORDERS.

On the occasion of his inspection of the port of Coconada early last year, the Presidency Port officer was impressed° with the necessity of increasing the Port office establishment. He now proposes× to sanction the addition of one clerk on Rs 20 and to give another clerk a personal allowance of Rs 5. There is already one personal allowance of Rs 10.

2. The office work is said to be very heavy, especially that portion of it relating to Landing and Shipping dues; and he proposes, therefore, that the increased cost shall fall against these dues.

3. This matter was held over in view of the contemplated change in the arrangements× for the collection and control of Landing and Shipping Dues. It has since been decided that no change is to be made in existing arrangements. The Presidency Port officer's proposals in regard to the port of Cocanada are therefore now submitted for orders.

Note

The grant of a personal allowance of Rs 5 to the Head Clerk is apparently proposed in view of the extra work falling on the clerk. A personal allowance is usually granted for approved service and is attached to the individual. In this case the successor to the [illegible] Clerk would be equally entitled to the allowance on account of the [illegible] work he would have to perform, that extra work being unconnected with the regular duties of the Port Office. The allowance would therefore more properly be designated a local allowance.

11/3/99

13. 3 99

The additional

allowance of granted Mr. [illegible] be a local allowance not a personal allowance. But it seems to me that what is needed is the reorganisation of the establishment. The work appears to be excessively heavy and the way to meet this condition is to increase the number of hands not the pay of the existing est: If the existing allowance to the be resumed and an extra clerk on 15 Rs be appd. much more work can be turned out by the ~~three~~ four men than by the existing ~~two~~ three however much they may be paid unless they are thinking at present.

I agree. It will certainly be preferable to have two clerks one on Rs 20 and the other on Rs 15 – instead of two one applied for with a personal allowance to another as proposed by the Presidency Port Officer.

16/3/99

H.E. 15-3-99.

This proposal may be a good one, but it differs from that made by the Board. That body should be asked their opinion on the new proposal.

The opinion of the Cocanada Conservancy Board on the question of the establishment for work in connection with the landing and Shipping dues at that port has been obtained and is submitted, in accordance with His Excellency's remarks x dated 18th March 1899.

2. It will be seen that the Board prefers to have the original proposal sanctioned, viz, an additional clerk on Rs 20 to do the Board's work, while continuing the allowance of Rs 5 to the Head Clerk of the Port Office for supervising the work of the new clerk.
