Fort Saint George, Public Works Consultation of 16th June 1857.

No. 96. Read the following letter from Colonel C. E. FABER, Chief Engineer; to. H. FORBES, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, dated 8th June 1857, No. 1010.

SIR,

With reference to Extract Minutes Consultation No. 791 of the 25th April 1857, I have the honor to inform you, that the improvements to the house of the Beadle of Saint Andrew's Church were recommended by the Chaplain, and entered in the Repair Book by the Barrack Master, and sanctioned in the usual manner, being absolutely requisite for the comfort of the persons in the said dwelling house.

2. The Beadle lives in the house with his family, and there is no privy attached; a temporary matted place close to the compound railing and an eye-sore having hitherto served the purpose.

3. The Quarters are very small, and an enclosure of a portion of verandah for an extra room was essential for the privacy of the members of his family.

4. The windows of the house being simply battened windows, and the house close to the road, the only alternative was a houseful of dust at certain seasons, and rain; at others, a room almost dark from the closing of the above battened shutters.

5. As regards the carriage shed which is also provided for in the amount of the estimate, it appears from the following Extract from a letter from the senior Presbyterian Chaplain, to Colonel Atkinson, dated 7th June 1856, that "besides its original purpose, it is in constant use "as being the only place where the Church ladders and tatties can be secured from exposure to "the weather, and it is always of great use on Sundays, as a shelter for the horses and Native "servants of persons attending Divine Service, and I believe it is an order of Government, that all "frequented buildings should be kept in efficient repair."

6/ I trust that the above explanation will be sufficient for the Government to sanction the estimates amounting to Rupees (577) five hundred and seventy-seven, as submitted with my letter of the 1st April 1857, No. 11454.

No. 97. ORDER THEREON, No. 1152; dated 15th June 1857.

Ordered to be communicated to the Ecclesiastical Department with reference to Extract Minutes of Consultation in that Department, dated 20th April 1857, No. 175.

Acting Secretary to Government.
