Lieutenant A. S. Molerly
District Engineer
Chinghap District

Sir I have the honor to request you will have the goodness to forward my application for leave for two months to enable me to proceed to Mursapore for the purpose of bringing down my horses and things. I also wish to take a few crops sections of the River at that place, so that I can show on the Survey (which I have already made) my arrangements for maintaining a sufficient depth of water on the principal spring of the Bar, and for preventing the River from encroaching on the Town of Mursapore.

I have the honor to be Sir
