Referring for consideration a letter from the Chief Engineer submitting a plan and estimate of a Civil Dispensary proposed to be built at Pollachy in Coimbatore, by private subscription, at a cost of Rupees 5,410. } (Here enter 24th September 1857, No. 1819.)

Government sanction the construction on the plan submitted, of a Civil Dispensary at Pollachy in Coimbatore, at the estimated cost of Rupees (5,410) five thousand, four hundred and ten, less Rupees (370) three hundred and seventy, the cost of the separate Ward for Lepers or infectious cases; no such Ward being, in the opinion of the Civil Surgeon, necessary, as one of the rooms on each side of the main building, at present intended as bath rooms, would suffice.

2. The donations proposed by the several Poligars to be given towards the erection of the Dispensary amount in all, to Rupees 5,450, but as the work, now to be executed, will cost only Rupees 5,040, a balance of Rupees 410, will be available for making any additions or improvements, which may hereafter be found necessary, to the building.
