4 & 5. Transmitting Annual Return of Patients treated in the Government Lunatic Asylum, with a statement of the expenses for the year. The purchase of Locock's Gardens with two adjoining pieces of land has been authorized for the site of the new Asylum, the Plan of which, when completed will, as directed by the Court, be forwarded for the approval of the Government of India.	21. There is nothing in the Annual Return calling for remark. The statement of the Medical Board as to the management and treatment of the Patients is favourable, but it would be more satisfactory to have a report from the Medical Officer in charge of the Asylum. We are glad that you have been able to secure a suitable site for a new Asylum, and we trust that a plan of the buildings will be submitted to the Government of India.	4.
