Fort Saint George, Public Works Consultation of 17th February 1857.

No. 37. Read the following letter from Colonel C. E. FABER, Chief Engineer; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, D. P. W., dated 21st January 1857, No. 6.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit a bill, amounting to Rupees, (180) one hundred and eighty for three hours extra work daily from the 16th December 1856 (includinig the whole of the holidays) to the 17th January 1857, of four draftsmen, one printer, and six Pressmen, who have been employed upon the Budget Map; for the favorable consideration and sanction of Government.

As five copies of the Map were urgently required by the 17th Instant to illustrate and accompany the Budget of 1857-58, and as temporary Lithographic Draftsmen, sufficiently up to neat and expeditious work could not be procured, there was no other way of effectually meeting the exigency than by the employment of the leisure hours and holidays of the office people; and I respectfully consider it due to them, to be remunerated, in the manner submitted, each in proportion to his salary, not only for their extra labor, but also for the sacrifice of the Christmas holidays.

The Budget Maps in question have been duly completed and delivered, which is more than at one time I had ventured to expect.

No. 38. ORDER THEREON, No. 315; dated 17th February 1857.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council sanctions the bill submitted with the foregoing letter for Rupees (180) one hundred and eighty, being the amount of remuneration proposed to be paid to certain Draftsmen and other Servants of the Lithographic Office for work performed during extra hours.

2. The Government have in para. 2 Minutes Consultation, Military Department, dated 27th July 1855, No. 2134, disapproved of the payment of any extra remuneration to office servants in the manner alluded to in the Chief Engineer's letter above recorded; and the enlarged Lithographic Establishment having been entertained, they direct that the practice be wholly discontinued.

Acting Secretary to Government.
