To
Lieutenant J. F. Fisher
Acting Civil Engr. of Bellary.

Sir.

I regret to find, that the Chief Engineer has taken so unfavorable a view of my application, but as it was necessity that compelled me to apply for for leave, I must avail myself of the terms offered; so I beg you will be so good as to grant me the 3 Months leave applied for in my letter dated 21st February, without delay, as my presence is urgently required at Madras, also it must be apparent, that no light reason would induce me to forego two months pay — I beg the favor of an early reply. —

I beg to remain &c.
