Reports on the state of the Burial ground at Coimbatore. } (Here enter 3rd March 1857, No. 128.)

The burial ground at Coimbatore being, it is stated, now large enough for the interment of Christians of all denominations, the Government sanction an outlay not exceeding Rupees (1,070) one thousand and seventy, for the erection of a wall around it. The necessary orders for the execution of the work will accordingly be issued from the Department of Public Works. To reduce as much as possible the cost of the work, convicts will, as proposed, be employed.
