Sir,

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that the leave granted to Mr. H. B. Smith late Executive Engineer 4th Class Chingleput, G. O. G. of the 4th September 1857 was to have commenced from the 7th Idem but as he availed himself of it under medical enforcement from the 4th the Civil Auditor states he has rendered himself liable to the retrenchment of his Salary for the 3 days he was absent without leave.

I beg therefore that the Government will be pleased to grant him retrospective leave commencing from the 4th September last to enable the Civil Auditor to pass his Salary Bill now impounded under disallowance.
