Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, from 1st to 10th June 1859.

No. 183. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. BELL, Chief Engineer ; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, dated 21st May 1859, No. 726.

I have the honor to report for the information of Government, that Mr. E. H. Fewkes, a Draftsman apprentice has ceased to attend the office.

2. Mr. Fewkes was bound apprentice on the 22nd November 1855 for five years, and has yet a year and six months to serve for the expiry of his term. I 1 List of apprentices of the Central Office. understand that he has enlisted in the Bengal Rifles, and that
1 Bond. nothing was known to his parents till he had embarked.
1 Agreement.

3. Mr. Fewkes' Indenture and Bond are herewith forwarded, from which it will be observed that Mr. W. Fewkes, his father, is liable to a penalty of 500 Rupees, and I have to request the instructions of Government as to the steps to be taken in this case.

4. I understand that it has hitherto been the practice with the Chief Engineer on the occurrence of vacancies in the permanent Establishment, to cancel the Indentures of those of the apprentices who have been found to have attained a high standard of qualification in the profession, and to appoint them to such vacancies entertaining others in their stead. But there are also cases which occurred as may be observed in the accompanying list, in which Mr.
Samuel Hughes was dismissed for inattention and carelessness and Mr. G. W. J. Gaynor was permitted to be withdrawn by his mother, and to have his Indenture cancelled.

5. In the case under consideration, I have ascertained that Mr. W. Fewkes, the father, is a poor man and if the penalty is enforced it will be attended with extreme hardship to him.
I would therefore recommend that the Indenture may be cancelled as in the cases which previously occurred.

No. 184. ORDER THEREON, 10th June 1859, No. 1419.

Under the circumstances reported, Government authorize the cancelment of apprentice
E. H. Fewkes' Indenture and Bond.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
