From, J. L. Lushington, Esq.
Comd Auditor.

To, J. G. Bourdillon, Esq.
Secretary to Govt.

Sir,
In para 3 of the order of the Madras Government No. 21,98, dated the 21st Ultimo, sanction is accorded for increasing the salaries of the Engineers (during their probation) from 170 to 200
& the upper subordinate from Rs 85 to 120 prospectively, which increase is, it is stated, to have effect from the date of their arrival in India.

2. I have the honor to submit for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor whether as the allces of these Engineers have been fixed by a covenant made between them & the Indian Council in England. The sanction of the Secretary of State for India, should not previously be obtained to the increase increased rate of allowances. I have further to request the favor of an early answer, as the bills will doubtless be shortly presented for audit.
