Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, for the month of November 1859.

No. 14. Read the following letter from CLEMENT DALE, Esq., the Receiver of the Carnatic Property; to THOMAS PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 16th November 1859, No. 339.

I do myself the honor of enclosing for the information of the Honorable the Governor in Council, a copy of a correspondence which has passed between myself and the Superintendent of the junction canal, on the subject of a piece of land adjoining Pater's gardens. It is evident that I have been misinformed, as to the fact that Mr. Kennedy is in treaty for the land in question; but as I learn, that the land is required for the canal, I forward the enclosed, and do myself the honor of requesting, that the officer who may be entrusted by Government to make the purchase, may be informed of my title to the land, and be warned not to treat with any other party, for its purchase.

No. 15. ORDER THEREON, 21st November 1859, No. 2714.
Communicated to the Chief Engineer for his information together with the original enclosures.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.

From Clement Dale Esquire The Receiver of the Carnatic Property
To Thomas Poynt Esquire Chief Secretary to Government.

Madras 16th November 1859

Sir,

I do myself the honor of enclosing for the information of the Honorable the Governor and Council, a Copy of a Correspondence which has passed between myself and the Superintendent of the Junction Canal, on the subject of a Piece of Land adjoining Peters Gardens. It is evident that I have been misinformed, as to the fact that Mr. Kennedy is in treaty for the Land in question; but as I learn, that the Land is required for the Canal, I forward the enclosed, and do myself the honor of requesting, that the Officer who may be entrusted by Government to make the purchase, may be informed of my Title to the Land, and be warned not to treat with any other party for its purchase.

I have the honor to be
