

Figure 1. The effect of the number of trials on the mean number of correct responses for the 100 trials condition. The number of correct responses was significantly higher for the 100 trials condition than for the 20 trials condition.

1000

Journal of Management Studies, 39(6), 708–726

MADRAS RECORD OFFICE

Government of Madras.

124

Fort Saint George, Public Works Consultation of 22nd March 1859.

No. 54. Read the following letter from A. W. PHILLIPS, Esq., Subordinate Judge, Madura; to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, dated Madura, 3rd March 1859, No. 59.

Sir,

1. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Extract of Minutes of Consultation, dated 7th January 1859, requiring information in respect of Teroomal Naick's Palace and the Tamkum, and with reference to para. 5 of the said Extract, the only one which I am called upon to reply to, I would respectfully beg to point out that though from the general dilapidated and ruinous state of the building, it has been quite impossible for me to keep it in what would be called "good repair," as the Governor in Council appears (from never having seen it) to think I ought. I have so far from neglecting it, or allowing it to deteriorate spent more on the building than I feel I was justified in doing, and certainly more than any of my predecessors for a long series of years.

2. I found it in fact a habitation literally fit only for Owls and Bats, while I shall leave it a very tolerable dwelling house, though deficient in accommodation and wholly unsuitable for any but a Batchelor, or a Married couple without family. I am sorry to say I have kept no regular account as to what I have spent annually in repairs, but they have been frequent, and I should say the expenditure has been quite or nearly as much as what Government now proposes to levy and to expend.

3. I have also added a Dining-room, and made sundry necessary additions, to say nothing of glazing, the expenses of which I have after some trouble made out to the extent of 500 and odd Rupees; but the greater part of the outlay, from having no Bills to produce, I am unable to enumerate, though they could not be less than 1,000 Rupees.

No. 55. ORDER THEREON, No. 632; dated 18th March 1859.

Before passing orders on this letter, the Government will await the receipt of the Estimate called for in para. 6 of Extract Minutes Consultation January 7th 1859 No. 60.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.

I found it in fact a habitation literally fit only for Owls and bats,

1859
1859

304
Madura Sub^{to} Court
3^d March 1859

From

J. W. Phillips Esq^r
Subordin^{to} Judge
Madura

To J. G. Brindley Esq^r
Secretary to Government
Public Works Department
Port St. George

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Extract of Minutes of a consultation dated 7th January 1859, requiring information in respect of Terminal Quicks, placed on the Docking and with reference to Para 5 of the said Extract, the only one which I am called upon to reply to, I would respectfully beg to point out that though from the general dilapidated and ruinous state of the building, it has been quite impossible for me to keep it in what would be called "good repair," as the Governor in Council appears to imagine, having seen it, I do think I ought to have done far from neglecting it, or allowing it to deteriorate spent more on the building than I feel I was justified in doing, and certainly more than any of my predecessors for a long series of years.

2 I found it in fact a habitation literally fit only for Oul and bats.

while I shall leave it a very tolerable dwelling, house, tho' deficient in accommodation and wholly unsuitable for any but a bachelor or a married couple without family. I am sorry to say, I have kept no regular account
as to what I have spent annually in repairs, but they have been frequently and I should say the expenditure has been quite as nearly as much as what Government now proposes to levy and to expend.

3 I have also added a dining room - and made sundry necessary additions to say nothing of glazing. The expenses of which I have after some trouble made out to the extent of 500 and odd Rupees - but the greater part of the outlay, from having so little to produce, I am unable to enumerate.
Though they could not be less than 1000 Rupees.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient servant

W. B. Hall
Subordinate to Judge

W. B. Hall

W. B. Hall
W. B. Hall

No. 632

Cons. 11th Jan'y 1859 n. 260-61

20th 1859 10th 1859

1st 1859 10th 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

Before paying any

on this bill, the Commission will amount the receipt of the estimate on 1859 for the same to the same Commission

7159 n. 20

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859

1st 1859