MEMORANDUM.

With reference to the order of Government in Public Department, No. 713, dated 11th May 1859, declaring the Conicopolies of the Gun Powder Manufactory to be subject to the Uncovenanted Service Examination, the Inspector General begs to point out that, by the order of Government in the same Department, No. 723, dated 9th May 1859, communicated by endorsement No. 1712, dated 12th May 1859, the same class of servants in the Commissariat Department have been ruled to be free from such examination and to enquire which of the above mentioned orders he is to adopt for his guidance.

INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE,
FORT SAINT GEORGE,
19th May 1859.

(Signed). G. BALFOUR, Colonel,
Inspector General of Ordnance & Magazines.

To the Chief Secretary to Government, Public Department.

ORDER THEREON, 31st May 1859, No. 846.

The Government have again had under their consideration the above order whereby servants of a certain class employed by the Commissariat were declared exempt from the Uncovenanted Service Examination. These were Conicopolies, Assistant Conicopolies, Mutsuddies, Weighing Men and Measuring Men.

2. Servants of the two last named descriptions whose duties seem of an executive character, should, the Government think, not fall within the operation of the Examination Rules. The Conicopolies, Assistant Conicopolies and Mutsuddies are however Accountants, and as such may properly be subjected to the test for the 2nd or Lower Division of the Revenue and Judicial Departments.

3. The order of the 9th Instant will be modified accordingly.
