In forwarding the accompanying letter from the Director General, Medical Department, dated 12th instant, No. 54, the Commander-in-Chief has the honor to recommend the application to the favorable consideration of the Honorable the Governor in Council.

The Superintending Surgeon Northern Division, having brought to my notice, the want of warm clothing felt by the men of the Sappers and Miners proceeding on duty to the Galle Parvattam Hills, stating that they would willingly pay for the necessary articles if supplied to them from the public stores, I have the honor to recommend to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that the clothing, &c. enumerated in the margin, Flannel, Banyans, Socks and Blankets. may be sanctioned for issue to the Sappers on payment, as being conducive to their health, comfort and efficiency, whilst employed in the cold climate of the Hills.
