Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, for the month of February 1860.

No. 93. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. BELL, Chief Engineer ; to the Secretary to Government, dated 19th January 1860, No. 9303.

With reference to their Proceedings No. 2869, dated 10th December 1859, I have the honor to forward for the information of Government, the accompanying letter from the Civil Architect, reporting that the writer charged for in the bill submitted with my letter No. 7953, dated 3rd December 1859, was entertained in December 1858, and kept on for a portion of January 1859, by Captain Winscom the late acting Civil Architect, and that it has been the practice for a very great length of time to entertain during seasons of heavy work, temporary writers for the purpose of checking the accounts. Captain Hitchins further observes, that finding this custom existing, when he took charge of the Civil Architect's office, he did not consider it so highly irregular as the Government pronounced it in their order, No. 1180, dated 17th May 1859 ; but that on its receipt, orders were issued for the immediate discontinuance of the practice.

2. Under these circumstances, I have the honor to request the sanction of Government to the amount of the bill above alluded to, viz. Rupees 21-8-0.

No. 94. ORDER THEREON, 7th February 1860, No. 302.

Under the explanation furnished, the Government sanction the bill submitted with the Chief Engineer's letter dated 3rd December 1859 No. 7953 amounting to Rupees (21-8) twenty-one and annas eight being the pay of an extra writer employed in the Civil Architect's office ; but it should be clearly understood that such charges will not be allowed in future.
