Read the following Memorandum:—

MEMORANDUM.

* Order, dated 17th March 1860, No. 397.

On the subject of this reference the Superintendent of the Press submits:—

That there will be no difficulty in printing, at the Government Press, the forms of the Department Public Works referred to. It is absolutely necessary, however, that the headings, &c., should be properly drawn out, and that the number of every form required for each district be written plainly on the first page of the copy, in order to avoid delay and error.
