Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, for the month of April 1860.

No. 57. Read the following letter from R. P. HARRISON, Esq., Accountant General, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, dated 12th April 1860, No. 520:—

In the letter from the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, No. 1,309, dated 10th March 1860, on which the Order of this Government, No. 603, dated the 21st idem, was passed, the Supreme Government have allowed the expenditure on account of the works noted in the margin, sanctioned by this Government, to be considered as additional to the outlay of 1859-60, instead of admitting it as an anticipation of that of 1860-61.

2. With reference to the above Order, I have the honor to request you will be good enough to inform me whether, under this authority of the Government of India, the other advances, specified in the margin, allowed by this Government, in anticipation of the Budget for 1860-61, are in the same way to be considered as "additions to the outlay of 1859-60." These advances have been sanctioned subsequent to the communication to the Supreme Government of those mentioned in the preceding paragraph, and previously to the receipt of their Secretary's letter above quoted; and I am induced to make this reference, as under the view expressed by that Government of anticipating a succeeding year's allotment, they also would seem properly to be
