Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 14th May 1861.

No. 92. Read the following letter from F. WALTHER, Esq., Secretary to the Income Tax Commission, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 1st May 1861, No. 53:—

Sir,

1. I have the honor by direction of the Commissioners to submit for the consideration of Government a claim made by one Peddoo Chetty Vencatasawmy Chetty, a weaver, that a house situated in Padahree Covil street, No. 42, in the second Division Madras, be exempted from the payment of Income Tax duty, on the plea that the annual rental of Rupees 45 derived therefrom is devoted to a religious public purpose.

2. Peddoo Chetty Vencatasawmy Chetty appeared before the Commissioners and stated that the house in question was built by him with the subscriptions raised amongst his friends, and was afterwards made over to the Parthasarthy Pagoda for the rent to be applied to the annual celebration of the festival of Pungoonny Wootharum. He further informed the Commissioners that an inscription upon a black stone fixed to the outer wall of the house for which he claimed exemption would confirm the statement made by him.

3. Subsequent inquiry having shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that this property is dedicated to the Parthasarthy Pagoda, as stated by Peddoo Chetty Vencatasawmy Chetty, the Commissioners beg to recommend that the house situated in Padahree Covil street in the second Division Madras, be exempted from Income Tax under the provisions of Section 133 of Act XXXII of 1860.

No. 93. ORDER THEREON, 14th May 1861, No. 1,024.

On the recommendation of the Commissioners, the Governor in Council is pleased under Section 133 of Act XXXII of 1860, to exempt from Income Tax the house specified, as it has been proved to be dedicated to a religious public purpose.
