Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 12th June 1861.

No. 122. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th May 1861, No. 2,494:—

Read letter from the Collector of Tinnevelly, dated 28th March 1861, No. 149.

(In Cons., 3rd April 1861, No. 2,003.)

1. Submitted for the orders of the Honorable the Governor in Council.

2. The arrears claimed in this case are for the period from 12th July 1854 to 31st December 1858. As it appears that after due investigation into his title, a life Sunnud was issued to the Inámdár; that he drew his allowance for the six months from January to June 1859 under it, and that the arrears amounting to Rupees 339-11-4 were not then paid through oversight, the Board recommend that sanction be now granted for their disbursement to him.

3. The Board presume that the Inámdár has continued to draw his allowance half-yearly from June 1859.

78	Kasturirangachary.	76 0 0	19th August 1854.	For subsistence.	From 12th July 1854 to 31st December 1858.	339 11 4	This is one of the subsistence allowances transferred to the head of Life Grants under the Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 19th August 1854. The sanction therein contained having been in the names of deceased persons who had been erroneously included in the Statements Nos. 2 and 3, submitted to the Board of Revenue with a letter dated 18th March 1854, the names of right parties were then reported to them on the 29th March 1856, and again subsequently under date the 19th February 1858, after instituting the necessary enquiries ordered by the Board, sanction was accorded to the same in Minutes of Consultation, dated 31st May 1858, No. 715. A life Sunnud was issued to the incumbent referred to in column 2 in March 1859; and in September following his allowance for the current period, viz., from January to June 1859 was paid to him, the arrears due for the preceding period having been omitted to be disbursed through oversight. As the period during which the arrear remains undrawn exceeds two years, the Collector requests the Board of Revenue will be pleased to obtain the early sanction of Government for disbursing the said amount to the Inamdar.
