Proceedings of the Madras Government.

Read the following letter from S. M. Venkataswamy Aiyar, residing at Vondamulla Appen Street, Black Town, Madras, to the Honorable the Governor in Council of Fort St. George, dated Madras, 1st December 1860, No 45.

My Lord,

I am extremely sorry to state to your Lordship, the circumstances of the Accountant General of the Supreme Court of this Presidency, having deducted unjustly a certain sum of money on account of the Income Tax, against the Rules of the

* Established by my Ancestors (which is commonly called Sanjore Ramah Aiyar who is my great-grand father) which is going on in Pondicherry, viz, giving food daily for 150 Brahmans, and other petty charities both at the said Pondicherry and in the Anjapattinam.

† Is entered in the Records of the Accountant General of the Supreme Court Dept. Lt.

Said Income Tax out of the interest money paid by him on the Government Promissory Notes secured in the said Supreme Court Department for a certain noble, kind, and benevolent charity under the Order of the Supreme Court, dated 24th July 1850, in the suit compromised between myself and Indondra Ramajooloo Nayudu, and M. Ramayimma, I therefore beg to solicit your Lordship will be graciously pleased to authorize the said Accountant General not only to refund the amount so deducted by him from 1st August last, but also in future to exempt such Tax on the said charity fund; and inform the same to me at your Lordship's earliest convenience, in order that I may give direction to the said Ramayimma to apply for the same, as she is now looking after the management of the charity affair as a manager under the power of myself and the said Indondra Ramajooloo Nayudu, who is at present absent from Madras.

Order thereon, 11th January 1861, No 42

Referred to Presidency Income Tax Commissioners for report on the claim preferred.
