Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 27th June 1861.

No. 277. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 31st May 1861,
No. 2,791:—

Read the following letter from A. HATHAWAY, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to W.
HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Chepauk, dated Ramandrug, 21st May 1861, No. 23.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to submit for the sanction of Government, a claim made for exemption from Income Tax, by Ranga Rao, Trustee of the Pagoda of Narasimhaswami of Pennahobalam, in the Taluq of Gooty, of this District.
2. The property upon which exemption is claimed consists of a Jahgir village called Pennahobalam, yielding an income of Rupees 872-12-2 per annum.
3. The village is registered in the name of the Narasimhaswami Pagoda at Pennahobalam, and the applicant has shown that the proceeds arising therefrom are devoted to religious and public purposes.
4. I would therefore beg to recommend that the income derived from this Jahgir village be exempted from the payment of the Income Tax.

Ordered to be submitted to Government, with the Board's recommendation that under the circumstances stated by the Collector, the exemption claimed be allowed.

(A true Copy and Extract.)

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON, Secretary.

No. 278. ORDER THEREON, 27th June 1861, No. 1,265.

Under Section 133 Act XXXII. of 1860, the Government exempt from Income Tax the profits arising from the Jahgir village of Pennahobalam, in the Gooty Taluq of Bellary, as long as they are devoted to religious public purposes.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Deputy Secretary to Government.
