Proceedings of the Madras Government

Under date the 26th March 1861

No. 1335

On the 11th August 1860, the Government called on the Board of Revenue to report as early as possible on a question that had been raised by the Jann Commission respecting the Mirkassa Villages in the Jannindaris of the old Mancipatam District. Upwards of seven months have passed and the Board have not yet replied to the Order. The Government resolve therefore to call their attention particularly to the subject, and to beg that no further delay may may be allowed to occur in the submission of their Reports.
