Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd July 1861.

No. 314. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th June 1861, No. 3,306:—

Read the following letter from V. H. LEVINGE, Esq., Collector of Madura, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Chepauk, dated Ramnad, 5th June 1861, No. 21.

SIR,

1. With reference to the Board's Proceedings, No. 2,323, dated 6th May 1861, I have the honor to report upon the claim for exemption from Income Tax made by Ram Ráu, pensioned Sarishtadár, item No. 3 in the list which accompanied my letter of the 20th April last, No. 18.

2. This individual has built two terraced buildings opposite to each other at Nangoonary village in Tinnevelly District at his own expense on account of shelter for travellers who are supplied with butter milk and firewood, &c., in the Chuttrums. A great number of people are also fed on festival days, which occur twice a year.

3. To defray the charges referred to above and for the pay of Establishment, Ram Ráu has endowed the Chuttrums with $23\frac{1}{16}$ chains of Punjah land in Malakarraipatty, Nangoonary and Ponnagakudy villages in the above District, yielding an annual income of Rupees 30 as well as Rupees 135, being 6 per cent. interest derived upon the amount of Rupees 2,249 deposited by him with a Nattookottai Chetty.

4. As I consider the whole of the above-mentioned income of Rupees 165 is solely devoted to public charity, I beg to recommend that the same may be exempted from taxation under Act XXXII. of 1860.

Ordered to be submitted to Government with the Board's recommendation that, under the circumstances stated by the Collector, the income from the endowment of Ram Ráu's Charity Choultry be exempted from Income Tax.

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON, Secretary.

No. 315. ORDER THEREON, 23rd July 1861, No. 1,461.

The Government wish to be informed whether the endowment, in land and money, referred to in the foregoing Proceedings, has been formally made over to the Chuttrums in question by Deed or otherwise.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,

Deputy Secretary to Government.
