MINUTE.

Fort St. George, 15 March 1861.

The President proposes the following appointments.

Captain E. O. Leggett, 35th Reg. N. I. to be an
Assistant Director of Revenue
Settlement of the 2nd grade.

Lieutenant C. J. Stuart 51st Reg. N. I. to be an
Assistant Director of Revenue
Settlement on probation.

Decision

My dear Brindell,

Here is a Memo:
at the Appointments
I want. If any reference is necessary in the Military Dept., perhaps you
c^d. Kindly get it made without delay, so that the Appointments may be forgotten tomorrow?

I have deferred these appointments longer than I wished, or was desirable, but I had difficulty in finding persons
for them, and have been obliged to fall back upon officers, as

3.
the pay is not very tempting to first
-rate Governmented men & is lower than is given in Bombay.

Respectfully
Yours
M. M. Mill

Memorandum

The Director of Revenue Settlement begs to recommend the following appointments in his Department:

Capt. E. O. Leggett, 35th Reg.
R. I. to be an Assistant Director of Revenue Settlement of the 2nd grade -

Lieut. C. J. Stuart 51st Regt. R. I. to be an Assistant Director of Revenue Settlement on probation -

Both these officers have passed the

Garnett 1/2

Ames. 1/2

Interpreters' Examination in Tamil as well as in Hindustani which is a great advantage to the Department, as they are required for the Tamil Country, and Hindustani is almost useless for the Settlement work.

They are intended for the Southern part, where there are two vacancies not yet filled up. Capt. Liffitt will draw the pay of 2nd Assistant

5
viz Rs 325 per mensem in addition to military pay &c, & Lieut.
Stewart can during his probation draw Rs 200 out of the pay of 1st Assistant (425 Rs) which will not be filled up till some of the assistants are qualified for promotion to it.

The Probationary Assistant-ship of Rs 200 per mensem is already filled up -

It is of much importance that Assistants should be entertained & qualified as soon as possible.

It may ^{be} added that unconventional persons of respectability are in some respects preferable to Officers, as they are not liable to be ~~called~~ ^{taken} away from the Dept. as Officers are; but the scale of pay as fixed by Government is scarcely sufficient to induce the former class to seek employment in the Dept.
