PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following Memorandum*:—

No. 118.

MEMORANDUM.

In reply to the Order of Government Public Department, No. 1,004 of the 12th instant, the Principal Inspector General has the honor to observe, that the total amount sanctioned from the Medical Department is sufficient to defray all charges which were inadvertently* omitted from the Budget of 1861-62. The charge on account of the additional servants for the Engineer's Establishment, was only sanctioned in February 1861, while the 1st December 1860 was the date on which the Budget was prepared.

2. The amount in question may therefore be passed. It will be included in the supplemental Estimate now under preparation.

* Including the Medical Officer's Civil allowances.
