Offg. Sub Collector of Nellore.
To, J. W. B. Dykes Esquire,
Collector of Nellore.

Sir,
It is with pleasure that I have the honor to report to you the occurrence of a copious fall of rain throughout this Sub-Division, on the morning of Sunday the 19th instant, and which has doubtless saved the ryots a great deal of suffering.

2. The fall of water at the stations of Ramayapatnam, Kandukuru & Ongole is noted in the

From, J. W. B. Dykes Esq.
Collector of Bellare.

To, W. Huddleston Esq.
Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

Sir,
I have the honor to subjoin for the information of the Board, copy of a letter, received on this day from the Officiating Sub Collector, reporting a fine fall of rain in the Sub Division on Sunday morning.

2. Having had no rain since October, the importance of this seasonable supply the Board will readily appreciate. And I have the pleasure to add that the rain extended as far South as this place, where, however, it was comparatively slight.
