In Witness whereof the Commander of the said Steam Ship hath affirmed to James Wain Bills of Lading all of this tenor and date one of which Bills of Lading being accomplished the others to stand void.

Dated in Madras 25 November 1861.

This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the following Conditions:—
Weight Contents and Value when shipped unknown.
The Company are not to be responsible for leakage or breakage or other consequences arising from the insufficiency of the address or package.
The Company do not guarantee that the Steamers shall have room at the Ports of transshipment or that there shall be no delay there.
In case it be necessary to detain and store the Goods it shall be done at the Company's expense but the Company are not to be answerable for delay so occasioned.
When owing to bad weather or other causes the Goods cannot be safely landed at their destination the Company reserve to themselves the right to convey them to the next Port on the Voyage to be returned thence by one of the Company's Steamers having space at the Company's expense but Merchant's risk and the Consignee cannot claim indemnity for such delay.
A written Declaration of the Contents and Value of the Goods is required by the Company and must be delivered by the Shipper to the Company's Agent with the Bills of Lading. A wrong description of contents or false declaration of value shall release the Company from all responsibility in case of loss seizure or detention and the Goods shall be charged double freight on the real value which freight shall be paid previous to delivery. The Company will not receive on board of their Vessels any Goods of a dangerous or damaging nature. If any such Goods be shipped without notice the Shippers will not only be liable to the penalties imposed by Statute but also for all damages sustained in consequence of such shipment.
The Company are not to be responsible for any consequences arising from restrictions of Quarantine wheresoever imposed.
The Goods are to be distinctly marked both on the outer and inner Packages with the Marks Numbers and Port of Destination or the Company are not to be responsible for detention or wrong delivery.
Goods and Specie if not taken delivery of by the Consignee or their Assigns so soon as the Steam Ship is ready to discharge will be landed and warehoused or discharged into and stored in a wharf or receiving ship at their Port of destination at the Merchant's risk and expense and the Company are not to have a lien on the Goods and Specie for such expenses. All liability of the Company in respect of such Goods or Specie is to cease so soon as they are free from the Ship's tackle after which the Company are not to be responsible for any loss or damage to such Goods or Specie howsoever caused.
