My dear Boarder
Reid's death
has made a vacancy
in the Commissary Dept.

Capt Morgan
proposed that Capt.
Fib should take his place in charge of Lepor Hunt & Mooroomally & Lepor Frest. and that a Capt Jones. & N.S. whole

card I enclose. He recommended Capt J:
on the strength of recommendation from friends in his corps.
By Mr. Hunt's desire
I wrote to ascertain whether the 1st Cotton Co.
object to his transfer.
Enclosed is the reply saying there is no objection if a suitable person is sent in his place.

There has been no ^{✓ B4} promise to any one - ~~not~~ do I believe that any one else is in the field.

There is also Gen.
Lowe's place vacant.
But as Morgan could not name any one
I kept the matter
for you.

I think it would be well that Morgan's

Successor - unless already in the D.P.M. - should not be forgotten as "As yet Asst. St. Engr." but briefly as "to act for Capt Morgan &c. - I have told this & more heard thinking I may not have forgot the appointment & he concurred - in order to prevent error by the D.P.M.

Babington has not yet joined - owing Mr. Crossland being only just been ordered off by Capt. Fiddark. staying 18th. I.D.M.
