Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 3rd April 1861.

No. 1. PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Dated 3rd April 1861, No. 723.

1. Under instructions from the Government of India, the Government direct that the monopoly price of Salt in this Presidency be increased by four Annas on every Indian Maund, and that the Import duty on Foreign Salt be raised from one Rupee to one Rupee and four annas per Indian Maund. This order will take effect at each place of sale immediately on its receipt there.

2. The Board of Revenue will be directed to use the most rapid means of communicating the order to all the Coast Collectors; with instructions to make it known to all persons in their Districts in charge of Salt sales, without any delay.

3. The change of price should be posted up in a conspicuous place at all Salt Kacheris, as well as at all Collectors' and Tahsildars' Kacheris; and it should also be notified in every District Gazette.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,
Secretary to Government.
