SIR,

1. Your letter in the Revenue Department, dated the 18th July (No. 82) 1860, transmitting a letter from Mr. Pelly, Member of the Board of Revenue, proposing arrangements for the appointment and pay of the Subordinate Magisterial Officers, who will be necessary in place of the present Police Amíns, and Police Amíldárs, has been laid before me in Council.

2. As at present advised I see no objection to the arrangements proposed by Mr. Pelly and sanctioned by you. The Proceedings however transmitted to me would have been more complete, had the recorded opinions of the Inspector General of Police and of the District Officers formed part of them. I request that they may be forwarded in future cases of the same kind.
